The percentage of persons who have immigrated to the the District of North Vancouver was 31.7%. Most immigrants originated from the United Kingdom with 18.4% followed by Iran with 13.2%. Since 1981, the change in the number of people born in Canada compared to the number born outside of Canada is relatively insignificant. In 1981, 72.3% of the population in the DNV was born in Canada compared to 66.7% in 2006. The most significant wave of immigration occurred between 1991 and 2000. The following are the key points:

- Percent of immigrant population: 31.7%
- Percent of non-immigrant population: 66.7%
- Most significant wave of immigration: 1991-2000
- Most popular age group at immigration: 25 to 44 yrs
- Percent of visible minority population: 22.2%
- Largest visible minority population: Chinese